

Diocese of Rockford

Ministry Formation Program

For lay men and women interested in deepening their knowledge of faith and sharpening their skills for serving God's people.

APPLICATIONS are now being accepted for the next Ministry Formation class to begin with Orientation, August 22, 2009.

Classes: It is a two year program, meeting from late August through May on Tuesday evenings and Saturdays (totaling twice a month).

Class sites in Aurora, McHenry, Rockford, Dixon

Classes include:

- Faith Development
- Communication Skills
- Prayer
- Old Testament
- New Testament
- Jesus: Incarnation & Redemption
- Church History
- Theology of Church
- Sacraments
- Leadership Skills
- Theology of Ministry
- Morality
- Social Justice
- Evangelization
- Specialization Days
- Retreat Days

Questions? or for an application packet Visit the Adult Faith Formation page at www.ceorockford.org,

Call: Jane Sartino: 815/399-4300,
or e-mail jsartino@rockforddiocese.org

John McGrath, Director
Ministry Formation Office
P.O.Box 7044
Rockford, IL 61125