

Families that earn 300% of the federal poverty level or less are eligible for scholarship funds. Priority will be given to students who are members of a household whose previous year's total annual income does not exceed 185% of the federal poverty level.

The amount of the scholarship a student is eligible for is based on the following income levels:

- Families with income at 185% of the poverty level or below are eligible for 100% of tuition and necessary fees
- Families with income that is between 185% and 250% of the poverty level are eligible for 75% of tuition and necessary fees
- Families with income that is between 250% and 300% of the poverty level are eligible for 50% of the tuition and necessary fees

*All amounts are capped at the current year statewide average expense per student, which in 2017 is $12,973.
