The Bishops of Rome have been Christianity's most powerful leaders for nearly two millennia, and their influence has extended far beyond the purely spiritual. The popes have played a central role in the history of Europe and the wider world, not only shouldering the spiritual burdens of the ancient office, but also in contending with - and sometimes participating in - the cultural and political crises of their times. In this class, we will explore the impact of the ten popes judged to be among the 'most influential in history'; men who shook the world.
