

10 Principles of Evangelization

On Evangelization in the Modern World – Pope Paul VI, 1975

Mission of the Redeemer – Pope John Paul II, 1990

Go and Make Disciples – US Bishops, 1992

1. Jesus was the first and greatest evangelizer. We evangelize because he commanded us to do so. (EN 7, GAMD 28; RM 1, 4)
2. Evangelization proclaims the kingdom of God. The Church is at service to God's call to charity, justice and mercy. (EN 8; GAMD 4, 10; RM 13-20)
3. Evangelization is the vocation of the Church, her deepest identity. The Church exists in order to evangelize. (EN 14, 59; GAMD 8; RM 1, 77)
4. Evangelization means bringing the Good News of Jesus into every human situation and seeking to convert individuals and society by the divine power of the Gospel itself. (EN 18, GAMD 10, 19; RM 71-72) **
5. Evangelization clearly and persistently proclaims the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ and the salvation that comes with believing in him. (EN 9, 27; GAMD 29, 32; RM 5, 10, 44)
6. Evangelization entails conversion / metanoia (EN 10, 36; GAMD 12-14; RM 46)
7. The Holy Spirit is the principle agent of evangelization. (EN 75; GAMD 34; RM 21)
8. Evangelization is profoundly linked to social justice and human advancement. (EN 31, GAMD 18, RM 42)
9. Evangelization involves the inculturation of the Gospel message (EN 63, 20; RM 37, 52-54)
10. Evangelization does not involve proselytizing. The Catholic Church calls other Christian communities into an even deeper communion through dialogue and cooperation. The Church also respects and esteems non-Christian religions, rejecting nothing that is true or holy in these religions, and engaging them in inter-religious dialogue. Yet the Church clearly realizes that all people have the right to know the riches of Christ, and that God's plan is to unite all in Christ. (EN 18, 39-48, 53; GAMD 19, 41-44; RM 6, 8, 34, 50, 55)

** from Dialogue and Proclamation (1991) by the Pontifical Council for Interreligious Dialogue: five qualities that should characterize the proclamation of the Gospel: 1) confidence in the Holy Spirit who is present and active among the hearers even before the Church's missionary activity comes into operation, 2) fidelity to the transmission of teaching that is received from Christ and preserved in the Church, 3) humility – realizing that the Revelation offered is received as a gift and messengers do not always live up to its demands, 4) respect for the presence and action of the Spirit of God in the hearts of those who listen invites the proclamation to be dialogical – the listener is not expected to be just a passive receiver, 5) the Gospel message should be inculturated in the cultural context of the listener to render it intelligible to them.

The Goal of Evangelization is ...

- to invite a person to believe in Jesus Christ;
- to enfold the believer in the sacramental, communal life of the Church;
- and then to enable, inspire and support a lifetime of full discipleship

Effective Evangelization – 6 Dimensions

1. Discipleship

- conscious commitment to follow Jesus Christ
- “cheap grace” vs. “costly grace”

2. Heart to Heart Relationships

- based on sincere care for others
- atmosphere of trust + openness

3. Lifestyle Witness

- Your public witness reflects Gospel values and virtues
- Credibility based on actions, attitudes, authenticity + fidelity
- Discipline “...brings the peaceful fruit of righteousness” Heb 12:11

4. Sharing the Good News

- “always be ready to give a reason...” 1 Peter 3:15
- your witness story / my experience
- don’t have to be a theologian

5. Inviting

- Listen!
- God’s heart is speaking through your heart to the heart of another
- Holy Spirit does the heavy lifting

6. Community Connection

- faith community as the Body of Christ / “the hem of Christ” (Mk 5)
