

Just a quick question: Are you a BRAND NEW youth minister?

(I'm defining "brand new youth minister" as having just started or about to start your FIRST youth minister gig – it doesn't matter if your full-time, part-time, or volunteer.)

If you ARE a brand new youth minister, read the next few paragraphs – if not, skip ahead to the flamingos.

At the end of a recent mastermind call with a group of youth ministers, one of them said: "I really wish I had this when I was just starting out in ministry." The rest of the group agreed unanimously. Which gave me an idea: What if we launched a special mastermind group exclusively for brand new youth ministers?

In August, we're doing it! Even better: we want to setup brand new youth ministers for an incredibly successful first year, so if you join the New Youth Minister Mastermind Group*, we'll also give you a FULL YEAR of Thrive Pro as our gift to you!

If you're interested, all you gotta do is fill out THIS FORM – I'll send you more details after you do, so you're not committing to anything. (And yes, it's all free!)

For those of you who have more than a couple months of youth ministry under your belt, we're working on some awesome things for your too, but it would be a big help to know a little more about how long you've been in youth ministry...

Don't forget: The work you're doing is important, and YOU matter.

Ps. Not sure what a "mastermind group" is? It's a weekly video call with 6-8 other youth ministers where we collectively problem solve and brainstorm together. It's one of the best opportunities to get PRACTICAL ways to build and grow your ministry.
