Vocation of the Catechist: You have been personally called, missioned, and empowered by God to the vocation of catechetical ministry, which leads to the awesome joy and responsibility of participating in the work of salvation.

The Catechism of the Catholic Church: Sacred Tradition transmits the entirety of the Word of God. Discover how the four parts of the Catechism directly relate to your vocation as a catechist, and how you will use this source in your lesson planning.

Understanding Sacred Scripture: God speaks to us in a very human way through Sacred Scripture. Explore how to use the four senses of Scripture to draw vital connections between the OT, NT, the Catholic faith, and your own spiritual life, and how this can strengthen your vocation as a catechist.
